TERMS AND CONDITIONS

a. The "Top-Up" option shall be available to member-borrowers whose total outstanding loan obligations from lending institutions to be applied (or have been applied) under GFAL has not reached the maximum amount of Php500,000.00; provided, that the resulting net take home pay is not lower than the amount required under the General Appropriations Act (GAA) after all required monthly obligations have been deducted.

   Below is the formula for computing the allowable "Top-Up" amount:

   (Gross Loan from Previous GFAL) + Top Up Amount ≤ Php500,000.00

   The member-borrower has an option to choose an amount lower than the computed allowable top-up.

b. The application for "Top-Up" shall be filed separately by the member-borrower.

c. A member-borrower with previously processed GFAL application may not apply for the "Top-Up" on the same month that the initial GFAL application was processed.

   However, first-time availees may apply for the GFAL and "Top-Up" option simultaneously, and the two shall be processed at the same time with only one (1) loan header created.

d. The qualification of the member-borrower for the "Top-Up" shall be evaluated based on the same conditions laid down under Section IV.C ("Qualified Loan Borrowers") of PPG No. 338-19 (GFAL II); hence, the borrower:

Regular active members must have at least three (3) years of periods with paid premiums (PPP);

   (2) Has no pending administrative case and/or criminal charge; Provided, however, that if the pending case or charge is filed by an accredited lending institution due to the Borrower's non-payment of his/her loan obligations as a result of the prioritization of GSIS and Home Development Mutual Fund (HDMF) loan payments, the Borrower shall remain eligible, subject to the submission of documentary proof stated under Section IV.D of PPG No. 338-19;

   (3) Is not on Leave Without Pay (LWOP) at the time of availment;

   (4) Has a previous or simultaneous application for GFAL; and

f. The following shall be deducted from the new or recomputed loan after availment of the "Top-Up" option:

   - Interest in Advance;
   - Advance Redemption Insurance premium; and
   - Outstanding balance from existing GFAL account (if any), computed as of date of granting of the top-up amount.

   The deduction of outstanding balance of the existing GFAL account shall not result in the full payment of the initial GFAL loan. The purpose of the said deduction is to determine the top up amount only.

g. The proceeds of the top-up amount shall be payable directly to the member-borrower through check.

h. The application for "Top-Up" amount can be availed of only once during the implementation period of GFAL.

i. The top-up amount shall be subject to the same interest rate, loan term and other terms and conditions such as but not limited to monthly amortization and its due date, payment mechanism, penalty for arrearages, automatic deduction of arrearages and default provision of the GFAL application being applied or already existing.
